Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

This is a completely new bill that provides protection from child abduction and is known as the Uniform Child Abduction Prevention Act. The bill allows for the cooperation and communications among courts and ability to order abduction prevention measures in a child custody proceeding, if the court finds that the evidence establishes a credible risk of abduction of the child. This includes a warrant to take physical custody of a child. A list of evidence that can be considered is included in the bill along with a list of possible protective actions.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

none.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

No fiscal impact to the Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF) - This bill is protective of children who are at risk of being abducted. It is unlikely that this would result in a large number of children coming into care as most of these children will most likely be at risk of abduction by their non-custodial parent and have a protective parent. Other protective measures would likely be used.
