Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Senate Bill 5330 is Washington pesticide application act for clarity, authority, and alignment with federal regulations.

Section 1. Amends RCW 17.21.020 with updated and new definitions to provide greater clarity in the act and align with federal regulations.

Section 2. Provides Allows the director of the Washington Department of Agriculture (WSDA) to suspend or revoke a license or certification based on a license or certification from another jurisdiction upon notification that the applicator's original certification was terminated, because the certified applicator has been convicted under section 14(b) of FIFRA or has been subject to a final order imposing a civil penalty under section 14(a) of FIFRA.

Section 3. Removes exception language, of applicants for a private applicator, limited private applicator, or rancher private applicator license must be at least 16 years of age on the date the application is submitted.

Section 4. Establishes that rule standards in the act must be at least as effective as federal certification and training standards.

No fiscal impact to the Washington State Department of Agriculture (WSDA).

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The proposed legislation has no cash receipts impact on WSDA.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Sections 1 through 4 update the Washington pesticide application act for clarity, authority, and alignment with federal regulations. Despite substantive updates, WSDA will have no fiscal impacts to implementing this bill.
