HB 1108

RESENTENCING OF PERSISTENT OFFENDERS

101 – Caseload Forecast Council
January 17, 2023

SUMMARY

A brief description of what the measure does that has fiscal impact.

Section 1 Amends RCW 9.94A.647 by adding the circumstance for when an exceptional sentence was imposed pursuant to a plea agreement intended to avoid a persistent offender sentence to the requirement for a resentencing hearing.

EXPENDITURES

Assumptions.

None.

Impact on the Caseload Forecast Council.

None.

Impact Summary

This bill:

- Requires certain individuals sentenced to a life sentence without the possibility of parole to be resentenced.

Impact on prison and jail beds

The Caseload Forecast Council (CFC) does not receive information regarding the basis of a plea agreement and does not have any information on how many individuals would qualify for resentencing under the provisions of the bill, nor what sentences might be imposed as a result of a resentencing. Therefore, the CFC cannot reliably predict correctional bed impacts resulting from the bill. Individuals serving a life sentence as a persistent offender due to a Robbery in the Second Degree conviction already have the right to resentencing, and as such, it is unknown if additional individuals would qualify for resentencing under the provisions of the bill.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section one amends RCV 9.94A.647 by adding that when an exceptional sentence as a persistent offender was imposed pursuant to a plea agreement intended to avoid a persistent offender sentence for robbery in the second degree, to the requirement for a resentencing hearing.

Also, if a guilty plea by an offender seeking resentencing from an exceptional sentence pursuant to this section may not be withdrawn, and the offender must be resentedenced as charged prior to entering the plea agreement.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

No fiscal impact.

Juvenile adjudications do not count as a most serious offense so it would be very unusual to have someone that committed their current offense under age 18 that is currently incarcerated and has a history of two separate adjudications.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

House Bill 1108 amends RCW 9.94A.647 resentencing of individuals as a persistent offender even if the offender entered an exceptional sentence prior to entering a plea agreement as to avoid a persistent offender charge.

Amends and includes new language in Sec. 1 (1) in any criminal case wherein an individual has been sentenced as a persistent offender, or wherein an exceptional sentence was imposed pursuant to a plea agreement intended to avoid a persistent offender sentence, the individual must have a resentencing hearing if a current or past conviction for robbery in the second degree was used as a basis for the finding that the offender was or would have been a persistent offender.

Includes new language in Sec. 1 (2) a guilty plea by an offender seeking resentencing from an exceptional sentence pursuant to this section may not be withdrawn, and the offender must be resentenced as charged prior to entering the plea agreement.

Amends Sec. 1 (3) date July 28, 2019.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The Department of Corrections (DOC) assumes the bill has no fiscal impact as written.
