Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

This bill amends the appeal process for unemployment insurance. Previously, availability to work was relevant to any appeal even if that was not an issue or grounds for appeal. This amendment removes the requirement to deliberate whether the individual met the criteria for being available to work, unless in cases where it pertains to the basis of appeal.

Section 1 removes the requirement that all appeals concerning waiting week period credit or for unemployment insurance benefits consider review the claimant's availability for work.

Section 2 adds a new section to RCW 50.32.040 giving legal preeminence to federal law where in conflict with state law.

This bill will have no fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates.
