Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

S HB 1080 modifies the Public Records Act exemptions for body worn camera recordings. There is no fiscal impact to the Lottery.

Washington's Lottery is a limited law enforcement agency pursuant to RCW 67.70.330. However, Lottery employees do not use body worn cameras.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1(14)(e)(i) modifies the list of qualifying individuals who, pursuant to the underlying statute, have a right to obtain body worn camera recordings and may not be charged the costs of redacting, altering, distorting, pixelating, suppressing, or otherwise obscuring portions of the recording.

o Removes the following as qualifying individuals:

- An attorney representing a person directly involved in an incident recorded by the requested body worn camera recording;

- A person or his or her attorney who requests a body worn camera recording relevant to a criminal case involving that person; and

- An attorney who represents a person regarding a potential or existing civil cause of action involving the denial of civil rights under the federal or state Constitution, or a violation of a United States department of justice settlement agreement, who is seeking a recording relevant to the cause of action.

o Retains the following as qualifying individuals:

- A person directly involved in an incident recorded by the requested body worn camera recording; and

- The executive director from either the Washington state commission on African American affairs, Asian Pacific American affairs, or Hispanic affairs.

Section 1(14)(e)(ii) Authorizes responding agencies to charge qualifying individuals for the costs of redacting, altering, distorting, pixelating, suppressing, or otherwise obscuring portions of a body worn camera recording when that person is a party in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident.

CHANGES MADE BY THE SUBSITUTE BILL

- Strikes all changes made in the original bill

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

No fiscal impact as the agency's officers do not wear body cameras.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

UTC assumes this bill not create any workload for the agency and therefore has no fiscal impact. The bill clarifies the list of individuals who have the right to obtain body work cameras. Also, allows there to be charges. The UTC is a limited law enforcement agency but does not commission employees as peace officers, nor does it enforce criminal law. UTC employees do not receive certification as criminal justice personnel.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The fiscal impact to the Washington State Patrol (WSP) remains at none for the substitute version of this legislation.

According to subsection 1(14)(e)(ii), an agency may charge the requesting individual for the costs to redact, alter, distort, pixelate, suppress, or otherwise obscure any portion of the recording if that person is a party in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The WSP currently has no body worn cameras in the agency. If we were to obtain them in the future, and requestor requests editing per subsection 1(14)(e)(ii) for use in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident, we could charge the requestor for such costs allowable under the narrow interpretations in public disclosure law.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

We currently have no body-worn cameras.

We would like to point out that we currently have a decision package in the Governor's proposed budget for 2023-25 that would provide funding to equip our officers with body-worn cameras. If that request is funded, and if this legislation passes, we may need to seek funding to comply with this legislation. The legislation is written permissively, though RCW 42.56.030 directs that the Public Records Act shall be liberally construed and its exemption narrowly construed. Costs that we might need to consider at that time are workload to properly understand and administer this statute consistent with criminal discovery rules, workload to assess costs to establish an appropriate billing rate, contracting workload to establish written agreements, fiscal workload to bill and receipt for services, workload to do video editing as requested by receipts of video, and workload for additional engagement with prosecutors related to fulfilling this legislation.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

There is no fiscal impact for the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) as a result of the changes to RCW 42.56.240, Section I.14.e.ii. The change in the 1.14.2.ii pertains to the release of a recording.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

1080 S HB differs from 1080 HB in that the bill authorizes law enforcement and corrections agencies responding to a public records request to provide an unredacted copy of a body camera recording if the requestor would otherwise be entitled to receive an unredacted copy during discovery.

Section 1(14)(e)(ii) amends RCW 42.56.240 by specifying when an agency responding to requests for copies of body worn camera recordings may charge the requesting individual to pay costs of redaction.

Effective date is assumed 90 days after adjournment of session in which this bill is passed.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

We assume this bill will have no fiscal impact to the Department of Corrections (DOC). DOC officers are presently not issued nor utilize body worn cameras.

The proposed bill language amends statutes RCW 42.56.240 related to requests for copies of body worn camera recordings and restrictions on their usage and distribution.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Substitute House Bill 1080 modifies the statute governing the release of police body worn camera footage. Compared with the original bill, the substitute:

- Removes the original bill language and replaces the bill.
- Removes individuals from the list of qualifying individuals who have a right to obtain body worn camera recordings with no costs charged for any redacting, altering, distorting, pixelating, suppressing, or otherwise obscuring any portion of the recording. (Section 1(14)(e)(i))
- Permits agencies responding to a public records request from a qualifying individual to charge for the costs of redacting, altering, distorting, pixelating, suppressing, or otherwise obscuring portions of a body worn camera recording when the requestor is a party in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident. (Section 1(14)(e)(ii))

There is no expenditure impact to the University of Washington Police Department (UWPD), or the University as a whole, from the substitute bill. Most of the new requirements contained in the original bill have been removed and the costs of providing redactions under the substitute bill can be recouped through allowed fees (see Ten-Year Analysis).

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

1080 HB updates RCW 42.56.240 which concerns body worn camera footage recorded by law enforcement officers and allows for the provision of unredacted body worn camera footage to eligible requesters. This would result in no fiscal impact to WSU.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SHB 1080 modifies RCW 42.56.240. Section 1(14) is amended from the original HB 1080 to remove the exemption from redaction charges for a person involved in a recorded incident or their attorney, relevant to a criminal or civil case.

EWU does not anticipate these changes to have any fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

S HB 1080 amends and expands guidance related to the release and use of unredacted law enforcement body camera recordings.

Section 1 (Amended Section) - (14)(e)(i) Strikes language related to attorneys representing involved parties and adds language to (ii) that prevents agencies from charging for redactions unless that person is a party in a criminal or civil case.

Central Washington University expects to allocate all costs related to implementing the proposed bill among existing resources.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

HB 1080-S relates to recordings from law enforcement body cameras and the rules around providing those recordings to requesters.

Section 1 (14) (E) (ii) specifies that a requesting individual may only be charged for the costs of redaction if they are entitled to receive an unredacted copy of the recording. Individuals receiving an unredacted copy of the recording under (f) must not be required to pay costs for the unredacted copy.

Section 1 (14) (f) (i) specifies that an agency may provide an unredacted copy to a defendant's attorney or defense agency if they would be entitled to receive a copy in the course of discovery in a criminal matter.

Section 1 (14) (f) (ii) (A-E) and (iii) specify what recipients of unredacted recordings are permitted to do with them.

Evergreen has a very minimal fiscal impact related to this bill.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

RCW 10.109.030 prohibits WSPRC from using body worn cameras. Accordingly, the sections of this substitute bill pertaining to disclosure of body worn camera recordings do not have revenue or expenditure impacts on WSPRC.

Since State Parks is prohibited from using body worn cameras, this legislation would have no impact on the agency.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The changes detailed in this bill pertaining to disclosure of body worn camera recordings will not have expenditure impacts on State Parks because the agency is prohibited by statute from using body worn cameras.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1 provides requirements and exceptions for when body camera recordings can be disclosed to requesting individuals and mandates when the recordings should and should not be redacted as required in this chapter. WDFW Law Enforcement does not currently use or collect body worn camera recordings and therefore the changes to RCW 42.56.240 do not apply. No fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part IV: Analysis

A. SUMMARY OF BILL

Description of the bill with an emphasis on how it impacts local government.

CHANGES BETWEEN THIS VERSION AND PREVIOUS BILL VERSION:

The proposed substitute bill would strike the language from the original bill that would allow disclosures of unredacted body camera footage to certain people, and would narrow the list of people who would be allowed to obtain a redacted copy of footage without being subject to paying redaction costs to “a person directly involved in an incident recorded by the requested body worn camera recording,” or “the executive director from either the Washington state commission on African American affairs, Asian Pacific American affairs, or Hispanic affairs.”

The proposed substitute would also specify that law enforcement agencies could require a person requesting body camera footage to pay the costs of redaction if that “person is a party in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident.”

SUMMARY OF CURRENT BILL:

The proposed legislation would amend disclosure requirements related to body worn cameras.

Section 1 would amend RCW 42.56.240, narrowing the list of people who have the right to obtain a body worn camera recording without being subject to the costs of redaction to “a person directly involved in an incident recorded by the requested body worn camera recording,” or “the executive director from either the Washington state commission on African American affairs, Asian Pacific American affairs, or Hispanic affairs.”

The amendments in this section would also allow law enforcement agencies to charge people requesting body worn camera footage for the costs of redacting, altering, distorting, pixelating, suppressing, or otherwise obscuring any portion of body camera footage if that “person is a party in a criminal or civil case on file in any court concerning the recorded incident.”

B. SUMMARY OF EXPENDITURE IMPACTS

Expenditure impacts of the legislation on local governments with the expenditure provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of expenditures. Delineated between city, county and special district impacts.

CHANGES IN EXPENDITURE IMPACT BETWEEN THIS VERSION AND PREVIOUS BILL VERSION:

Compared to the original bill, the proposed substitute bill would eliminate any cost savings to public defenders as a result of not having to use attorney time to obtain body camera footage through the discovery process. The magnitude of the potential cost savings that may have resulted from the original bill were indeterminate.

According to the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC), the changes in the proposed substitute bill would likely not have any expenditure impact on local law enforcement agencies.

EXPENDITURE IMPACT OF CURRENT BILL:

The proposed legislation would have no impact on local government expenditures.

WASPC does not anticipate any change in the volume of requests for body worn camera footage as a result of this bill's provisions, and indicates that accordingly, local law enforcement agencies would likely see no expenditure impacts.

C. SUMMARY OF REVENUE IMPACTS

Revenue impacts of the legislation on local governments, with the revenue provisions identified by section number, and when appropriate, the detail of revenue sources. Delineated between city, county and special district impacts.

CHANGES IN REVENUE IMPACT BETWEEN THIS VERSION AND PREVIOUS BILL VERSION:

The proposed substitute bill would not change the revenue impact on local governments compared with the original bill.

REVENUE IMPACT OF CURRENT BILL:

The proposed legislation would have no impact on local government revenues.

Local law enforcement agencies charge varying rates for the costs of redacting body worn camera footage, typically charging by the minute. The Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC) indicates that redacting one minute of body worn camera footage requires about six minutes of staff time. According to the 2023 Local Government Fiscal Note Program Criminal Justice Cost Model, the average hourly salary plus benefits and overhead for an evidence or records clerk in a local law enforcement agency is $41. Any agencies charging less than 0.68 cents per minute for redaction would not be covering the costs of a $41 average hourly salary plus benefits and overhead.

Accordingly, WASPC indicates that expanding the list of people who could be charged for the costs of redacting body worn camera footage would not create any new revenue for local law enforcement agencies.

Narrative Explanation (Required for Indeterminate Cash Receipts)

Section 1(14)(e)(ii) allows law enforcement agencies to charge individuals for redactions to body worn camera footage if those individuals are a party in a criminal or civil case to which the footage relates. At this point, the UW anticipates charging $0.75 for each minute staff spends working on redactions requested under this provision. However, the UW is not able to estimate with any certainty how many separate redaction requests will be received under this section, or the average time that the redaction process will take for each request, as UWPD's body camera system was only implemented in June 2022. Therefore, any positive cash receipts to UW from this provision are indeterminate.
