Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

This bill proposes to rename the Natural Recourses Building (NRB) located at 1111 Washington Street SE in Olympia, Washington on the East Capital Campus, to the Jennifer Belcher Building." This resolution will have a fiscal impact to the Department of Enterprise Services (DES).

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

DES would require funding for renaming NRB to the Jennifer Belcher Building, which entails replacing or modifying all exterior and interior signage, wayfinding signage, additional communications and website updates. DES would also need to rename the NRB Garage, and all the signage, communication and website updates related to it.

The estimated cost to replace or install 50 exterior and interior signs for the building and parking signage. As well as updating wayfinding signage throughout the capitol campus and neighboring community. Updating the website, interactive maps, and all digital and print communications is $100,000.

Estimated development and fabrication costs - $77,000 Estimated installation costs - $23,000
