Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The bill is in regards to proceedings to preclude establishment of parentage when a parent alleges that a person committed a sexual assault that resulted in the parent becoming pregnant and subsequently giving birth to a child.

Section 1(4) changes the ability for a parent to seek preclusion of parentage in sexual assault case from four years to ten years after the birth of the child.

Section 1(5) requires a fact-finding hearing within 75 days unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Section 1(12) requires the court to appoint an attorney for the petitioner or respondent if they are indigent and meeting outlined circumstances.

Section 2 is a new section which requires OCLA to enter into contracts to provide legal services in preclusion proceedings, and must remain within appropriated amounts.

Section 3(19)(b) modifies the definition of a "parent" to exclude a person against whom a court has entered a final order removing the person from establishing or maintaining parentage of a child.

Section 4(9)(f) modifies visitation of the perpetrating parent and the child to not be allowed prior to fact finding or dismissal of the petition unless both the parent and child are shown to have a bonded relationship and the court finds it in the best interest of the child.

Section 6(4) adds concurrent legal jurisdiction is allowed under this bill with dependency court.

Section 7 is a new section that requires the perpetrating parent to attend proceedings remotely until fact finding.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The Department of Children, Youth, and Families assumes there will be no fiscal impact due to this bill. The sections pertaining to DCYF do not entail new work. DCYF would defer to the Courts' orders. DCYF anticipates delivering a small amount of training to staff who file dependency petitions, but this can be absorbed by the agency.
