Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Expenditure Impact:

The Attorney General's Office (AGO) Agriculture and Health Division (AHD) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not significantly increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Department of Commerce (Commerce). The enactment of this bill will not impact the provision of legal services to Commerce by AHD. Commerce was assigned this fiscal note request for its role in estimating the impact of bills on local governments. Commerce would not be given any new authorities or responsibilities under this bill. This bill will not generate any legal work for AHD. Therefore, costs are not included in this request.

The AGO Revenue and Finance Division (REV) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not significantly increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Office of Financial Management (OFM). The enactment of this bill will not impact the provision of legal services to OFM. REV assumes this bill would generate few, if any, requests for legal advice. New legal services are nominal and costs are not included in this request.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 2 clarifies that payment or reimbursement of childcare or adult dependent care expenses, related to travel on official business, to state employees does not constitute a private benefit or gain in violation of the Ethics Act.

Section 3 expands the definition of "subsistence expense" related to travel on official business, of which OFM prescribes reasonable allowances to cover, to include child or adult dependent care that would not be necessary of the person was working from the person's designated post of duty.

OFM may incur some workload to update and assist agencies who may need to update their travel policies to incorporate these changes. This can be completed utilizing current staffing and resources, and therefore has no fiscal impact to OFM.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates.
