Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SSB 5598 establishes the policy that beginning July 1, 2023 through July 1, 2029 the legislature must annually appropriate six million dollars from the general fund to the Washington horse racing commission operating account.

The Washington horse racing commission operating account earnings from investments are retained by the account under RCW 43.79A.040(b).

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Projected cash flows are currently unavailable; therefore, estimated earnings from investments are indeterminable.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Note: This fiscal note reflects language in SSB 5598, 2023 Legislative Session.

COMPARISON OF THE SUBSTITUTE BILL WITH THE ORIGINAL:

The substitute bill removes the connection to retail sales tax generated from equine-related purchases and makes the transfer a $6 million appropriation to the Washington Horse Racing Commission Operating Account.

CURRENT LAW:

The Washington Horse Racing Commission is responsible for licensing, regulating, and supervising all horse race meets held in Washington where the parimutuel system of betting is used.

PROPOSAL:

Beginning July 1, 2023, through July 1, 2029, up to $6 million shall be appropriated annually from the general fund into the Washington Horse Racing Commission Operating Account for commission activities and operating expenses.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

This bill contains an emergency clause and takes effect July 1, 2023.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

This legislation results in no revenue impact to taxes administered by the Department of Revenue (department).

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The department will not incur any costs with the implementation of this legislation.
