Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

In Section 2, the Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF) will license the living accommodations provided by residential schools. DCYF shall adopt minimum health and safety rules.

Section 3 states DCYF must investigate referrals of alleged child abuse or neglect at schools for deaf and hard of hearing, substance use disorder treatment facilities, and behavioral health services by making findings of abuse or neglect and/or a referral to law enforcement, and must share records and information.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Indeterminate cash receipts.

As a central service agency, the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) bills referring agencies for its costs and collects the revenue into the Administrative Hearings Revolving Account. Cash receipts are assumed to equal costs. OAH will bill the Department of Children, Youth, and Families for the costs related to this proposed legislation.

These cash receipts represent the OAH's authority to bill and are not a direct appropriation to OAH. Appropriation authority is necessary in OAH's budget.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Indeterminate expenditure impact. This request is indeterminate based on unknown data related to the number of facilities where children live and sleep within the definition of residential schools, and the number of children in these facilities.

The Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) estimates that the proposed legislation will result in an indeterminate number of appeals being referred from the Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF). On average, each appeal is expected to take approximately one to five days, and up to 24 hours to prepare an order. This work is line Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) time.

OAH Agency Workforce Assumptions:

- (1) The Governors proposed COLA increases in FY2024 and FY2025, and Collective Bargaining Agreement increases are not included in agency cost projections. Additional funding is required if these proposals are enacted.
- (2) Ratio of 1.0 FTE line ALJ to 0.15 Senior ALJ (SALJ), to 0.6 Legal Assistant 2 (LA2) (Range 40 step L), to 0.25 administrative support Management Analyst 5 (MA5) (Range 64 Step L).
- (3) ALJ salary is based on the ALJ collective bargaining agreement and assumed to be at step L. (Line ALJ-range 70. Senior ALJ-range 74.)
- (4) Benefit rates were analyzed by job class and projected using the latest benefit information available.
- (5) Goods and services, travel and on-going capital outlays were projected based on historical data for each of the job classifications.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The fiscal impact has not changed from the previous fiscal note on 5515 SB. This bill exempts private schools from licensing requirements if it is accredited by an accrediting body and the accreditation covers student living accommodations. It clarifies that the Department of Children Youth and Families must engage in negotiated rulemaking in consultation with the State Board of Education and other interested parties to adopt minimum health and safety rules and removes the definition of residential schools from this version of the bill. Changes in the bill do not change the fiscal impact for the Department of Health (department).

This bill provides greater oversight to the Department of Children Youth and Families to ensure the health and safety of children who are served in residential facilities and residential schools.

Section 3: Amends RCW 26.44.210 (Alleged Child Abuse or Neglect at the State School for the Deaf—Investigation by Department—Investigation Report) directing the Department of Children Youth and Families to investigate referrals of alleged child abuse or neglect occurring at the Washington center for deaf and hard of hearing youth, and substance use disorder treatment facilities licensed under 71.24 RCW (Community Behavioral Health Services Act), entities that provide behavioral health services defined in RCW 71.24.025 (Definitions) and residential schools defined in RCW 74.15.020 (Definitions). The department anticipates receiving referrals for an additional 2 investigations per year as a result of this section.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Current law, RCW 43.70.250 (License fees for professions, occupations, and businesses.) requires that a business-licensing program be self-supporting and sufficient revenue be collected through fees to fund expenditures. The department does not anticipate the need to increase licensing fees to support the changes proposed in this bill. However, the department anticipates raising residential treatment facility and behavioral health agency licensing fees to maintain a healthy fund balance. The department will monitor the program fund balance and adjust fees over a six (6) year period to ensure that fees are sufficient to cover all program expenditures.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Investigation

Sections 3: Based on experiences with behavioral health facilities and residential treatment facilities, the department is estimating receiving referrals for an additional 2 investigations per year. Since the department has begun the regulation of behavioral health agencies and residential treatment facilities, the department has learned that the investigations of these facilities can easily become complicated with many safety risks. The investigations need to be conscientious to the safety of patients, facility staff, and the department's staff conducting the investigation.

The complaint response process includes five steps: 1) intake, 2) assessment, 3) investigation, 4) case disposition, and 5) adjudication. Staff review the complaint, identify the history of the facility complained about, and help assess whether an investigation is needed. The investigator obtains information about the complaint and the respondent, then prepares a report detailing the findings. The average length of investigation for these facility types is 46 hours. After investigation, the disciplining authority decides whether to pursue legal action. Staff attorneys, paralegals, assistant attorney general, and other staff work to develop the legal documents and charge the violation. Most cases are settled, and the staff attorney manages that process. If the respondent asks for a hearing, staff must schedule the hearing, and the health law judge considers all legal motions, presides over the hearing, and draft the final order. Also, the Office of the Attorney General will represent the department at hearings and may provide advice throughout the enforcement process.

FY 2024 costs will be 0.1 FTE and $12,000 (GF-L).

FY 2025 and ongoing, costs will be 0.2 FTE and $24,000 (GF-L).

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Comparison of 5515 SSB to 5515 SB:

The term, "residential schools" is changed to "residential private schools". This distinguishes these facilities from Juvenile Rehabilitation facilities which are also defined as residential schools.

Section 2 adds an exemption from the licensing requirement for residential private schools if the school is accredited by an accrediting body approved by WSBE and the accreditation includes examination comparable criteria listed in subsection 2 of this section (minimum health and safety rules). This section also adds that DCYF must engage in negotiated rulemaking with WSBE and other affected interests to adopt minimum safety standards.

Section 6 removed the requirement that the state board of education coordinate with DCYF to submit the progress report on the licensing of residential private schools to the legislature.

Section 2 requires the Department of Children Youth and Families (DCYF) to license living accommodations for residential private schools. This section also requires the department to engage in rule making with the board of education to establish the health and safety standards for residential private schools.

Section 3 requires DCYF to investigate alleged child abuse at WA Center for Deaf and Hard of Hearing, substance use disorder treatment facilities, behavioral health services, and residential private schools.

Section 6 requires DCYF to submit a report on the licensing of residential private schools to the legislature by July 1, 2025, and final report by July 1, 2026.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Child care staff performing Child Protective Service (CPS) investigations are partially funded by the Title IV-E federal grant. Additionally, the Title IV-E federal reimbursement rate is 13% for administrative support, this is applied to all FTE costs. Estimated federal revenue is as follows:

FY24: $36,000

FY25: $34,000

FY26: $34,000

FY27: $34,000

FY28: $34,000

FY29: $34,000

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The total cost of the bill is estimated at $831,000 ($761,000 GFS) and 3.2 FTE in the 23-25 Biennium.

Section 2 Licensing residential private schools: The Department of Children, Youth and Families estimates $516,000 ($506,000 GFS) and 2.0 FTE in the 23-25 Biennium.

The Department estimates that it will take at least 2 years for 2.0 temporary Social and Health Program Consultants 2 (SHPC 2) FTEs to research the current state and characteristics of residential private schools and develop the rules, policy, and training for licensing these facilities. This will be more complex than group care facilities typically licensed and maintained by the licensing division of DCYF, because there is a separate educational component. DCYF will have to closely coordinate with the Washington State Board of Education (WSBE) to clearly identify roles and responsibilities regarding the residential vs. educational requirements for these facilities.

Once this new license has been established, it will increase the number of facilities to be licensed. There are currently 12 residential private schools registered with WSBE and DCYF estimates approximately 12 more unregistered Washington state residential private schools for a total of 24 facilities. DCYF believes that all of these facilities would have to be licensed, including those accredited by WSBE. There is an exemption to licensing for facilities that have an accreditation that covers student living accommodations, but there are no known accrediting bodies (including WSBE) that accredit the living accommodations at these schools. Current caseloads for licensing group care facilities are an average of 14 facilities per FTE. The Department estimates it would take 2.0 ongoing Social and Health Program Consultants 2s (SHPC 2) to maintain this new caseload.

Total costs including salaries, benefits, equipment, goods and services, travel, and admin support:

FY24: $265,000
FY25: $251,000
FY26: $251,000
FY27: $251,000
FY28: $251,000
FY29: $251,000

Section 3 Investigations child abuse in facilities: The Department of Children, Youth and Families estimates $315,000 ($255,000 GFS) and 0.5 FTE in the 23-25 Biennium.

Based on information from the Department of Health (DOH) there are 10 facilities that meet the criteria of being substance use disorder treatment facilities, behavioral health services, or the WA Center for Deaf and Hard of Hearing described in section 3 of the bill. 24 residential private school facilities are also impacted by section 3 of the bill. The bill requires that these facilities are subject to additional Child Protective Service (CPS) investigation.

In 2022, out of 150 group care facilities, there were 190 investigations, so about 1.3 investigations per group care facility. The 10 facilities identified by DOH are thought to be particularly complicated with many safety risks, as noted by DOH. For this reason, it is assumed that investigations at these facilities will be twice the normal workload. These DOH facilities are therefore thought to generate an equivalent workload to approximately 26 investigations per year (1.3 investigations per facility * 10 facilities * 2 times the workload). The investigations at the residential private schools are assumed to be much more standard and would represent a workload of 31 investigations per year (1.3 investigations per facility * 24 facilities). Each investigator handles about 48 LD CPS investigations per year, so the increased workload 57 investigations would be the equivalent of approximately 1.2 Social Service Specialist 3 (SSS3) FTEs.

Total costs including salaries, benefits, equipment, goods and services, travel, and admin support:

FY24: $162,000
FY25: $153,000
FY26: $153,000
FY27: $153,000
FY28: $153,000
FY29: $153,000

In addition to the costs above, the DCYF Board of Appeals predicts that based on the additional licensed facilities and additional CPS investigations there will be an increased in the number of facility licensing and CPS cases heard on appeal from the Office of Administrative Hearings. However, the fiscal impact to DCYF from these additional cases is uncertain due to a lack of data on the potential increase in the overall number of cases.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Senate Bill 5515 states the following:

The purpose of this bill is to ensure that the health, safety, and well-being of children who are served in residential facilities and residential schools are protected against child abuse and neglect and have their basic health and safety needs met.

Section 3(3)(b) defines ‘residential school’ as not including state long-term juvenile institutions operated by the Department of Children, Youth, and Families (DCYF), county juvenile detention centers, or the Department of Corrections (DOC) facilities that incarcerate juveniles committed as adults.

Section 4(1)(i)(ii) defines ‘residential school’ as not including state long-term juvenile institutions operated by DCYF, county juvenile detention centers, or DOC facilities that incarcerate juveniles committed as adults.

Sections 2, 4, and 5 of this act take effect July 1, 2025.

Section 3 of this act takes effect January 1, 2024.

Substitute Senate Bill 5515 amends the following:

The purpose of this substitute bill is to protect children from abuse and neglect; amends RCW 26.44.210 and 74.15.020; adds a new section to chapter 74.15 RCW; adds a new section to chapter 71.24 RCW; creates new sections; and provides effective dates.

Sections 2 and 4 of this act take effect July 1, 2025.

Section 3 of this act takes effect January 1, 2024.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

None.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

We assume this bill will have no fiscal impact to (DOC).
