Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Passage of this proposed legislation will not impact DSHS workload or client benefits. Therefore, there is no fiscal impact to DSHS.

However, there will likely be an impact for Consumer Direct Washington in paying for more continuing education (CE) Individual Provider (IP) training, as this bill abolishes the exemption to that requirement for IPs caring for a sibling, aunt, uncle, cousin, niece, nephew, grandparent, or grandchild, including when related by marriage or domestic partnership. It is difficult to project that impact because there will be an increase in the number of providers needing to complete CE and a reduction in hours for basic training for IPs who newly qualify under the family member definition.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.
