Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

House Bill 2024 would establish the Lunar New Year as a recognized holiday. Section 2(3) of the bill gives the Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs (CAPAA) the responsibility of creating “lunar new year programming and resources that [State] entities may use in planning and structuring their celebrations.”

To meet the expectation of this legislation, CAPAA anticipates needing to purchase materials, publish handouts, and undertake a modest outreach campaign.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

To develop the program and resource for Lunar New Year recognition, CAPAA will need $10,000 in the first year to hire a consultant and purchase the materials. In each subsequent year the agency will need $2000 to update the program and resources.
