Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1 - New section. Intent. Purpose is to expand cooperation across jurisdictions, to establish clear demarcation of authorities, to prevent fugitives from tribal courts from evading service of warrants by remaining off-reservation.

Section 2 - New section. Definitions.

Section 3 - New section. Place of detention shall notify tribal law enforcement when it is holding a tribal fugitive.

Section 4 - New section. Noncertified tribe that issued arrest warrant may demand extradition. Tribe must provide documentation establishing fugitive status.

Section 5 - New section. Extradition stayed if and while tribal fugitive is on trial in state courts.

Section 6 - New section. Attorney General’s Office (AGO) or Prosecuting Attorney shall submit documents and effectuate surrender the next judicial day. Establishes extradition procedure.

Section 7 - New section. Establishes rules for state place of detention to turn over fugitive without going through process.

Section 8 - New section. Tribe responsible for transport of fugitive.

Section 9 - New section. State Peace Officer may arrest tribal fugitives. Establishes court process for notifying fugitive of warrant and hearing and waiver provisions.

Section 10 - New section. Tribal arrest warrant shall be accorded full faith and credit. Place of detention will respect and enforce tribal notice of detainer. Writ of habeas corpus shall be afforded any person detained under this provision.

Section 11 - New section. Act does not affect other state-tribal agreements.

Section 12 - New section. Act known as “Tribal Warrants Act.”

Section 13 - New section. Act is new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

This bill is assumed effective 90 days after the end of the 2024 legislative session.

1. The Attorney General’s Office (AGO) Criminal Justice Division (CRJ) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not significantly increase or decrease the division’s workload in representing Washington State Patrol (WSP). This bill provides legal authority for Washington Peace Officers to arrest fugitives from a tribal court and for Washington Superior Courts to order that a prisoner in a Washington detention facility be transferred to tribal custody to answer to tribal charges or allegations of probation violations from tribal court convictions. It would also give Washington Peace Officers, including WSP Peace Officers, authority to arrest persons they encounter who have an outstanding arrest warrant issued by a tribal court. New legal services are nominal and costs are not included in this request.

2. The AGO Corrections Division (COR) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not significantly increase or decrease the division’s workload in representing the Department of Corrections (DOC). This bill requires the AGO or County Prosecutor to file motions for orders of surrender with respect to the extradition of tribal fugitives sought by certain Washington State tribes, and who are in Washington State custody at a DOC prison. COR assumes County Prosecutors would prefer this work would be handled by the AGO. Therefore, with input from DOC, we estimate that the motion for order of surrender proceedings would occur infrequently (approximately five per year). New legal services are nominal and costs are not included in this request.

3. The AGO Government Compliance & Enforcement Division (GCE) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC) or WSP. This bill regards law enforcement coordination to honor tribal warrants in non-tribal jurisdiction areas. GCE's advice and litigation support to CJTC and WSP are limited to specific areas and programs which are not impacted by this bill. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

4. The AGO Public Lands Conservation Division (PLC) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Department of Natural Resources (DNR) or Washington State Parks (Parks). Neither agency employs law enforcement officers with general law enforcement authority, as defined in RCW 10.93.020. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

5. PLC has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Department of Fish and Wildlife (DFW). Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

6. The AGO Agriculture & Health Division (AHD) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload in representing the Department of Commerce (Commerce). Commerce would not be given any new authorities or responsibilities under this bill. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

7. The AGO Licensing & Administrative Law Division (LAL) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload in representing Washington's Lottery Commission (LOT). Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

8. The AGO Education Division (EDU) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

9. The AGO University of Washington Division (UOW) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

10. The AGO Washington State University Division (WSU) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

11. The AGO Administrative Division (ADM) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

12. The AGO Regional Services Division (RSD) has reviewed this bill and determined it will not increase or decrease the division's workload. Therefore, no costs are included in this request.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

There is no fiscal impact. Pursuant to RCW 67.70.330, Washington’s lottery is a limited authority law enforcement agency as defined in RCW 10.93.020(5). However, the definition of “peace officer” in the bill applies only to general authority peace officers as defined in RCW 10.93.020(4) and is inapplicable to Lottery employees. In addition, Lottery employees are not authorized by the agency to arrest or detain suspects.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 2(3) of the bill limits the definition of Peace Officer to the definition of RCW 10.93.020(4), which is general authority law enforcement.

Section 9 of the bill allows peace officers to arrest a person subject to a tribal arrest warrant from a noncertified tribe.

The Gambling Commission is a limited authority law enforcement agency, so there is no fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 2(3) defines “Peace officer” to have the same meaning as in RCW 10.93.020(4), which means "General authority Washington peace officer".

Sections 3 through 13 create a process for state law enforcement officers and places of detention to deliver fugitives to requesting Indian tribes and for state law enforcement officers to enforce tribal arrest warrants.

The Office of the Insurance Commissioner (OIC) is a limited authority law enforcement agency that staffs limited authority peace officers who do not meet the definition of a “General authority Washington peace officer” in RCW 10.93.020(4). Therefore, no fiscal impact.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The proposed legislation has a fiscal impact to the Washington State Patrol (WSP).

This legislation would give non-tribal law enforcement the ability to act upon a tribal arrest warrant issued by a certified or noncertified tribe in Washington. It would allow issued tribal warrants to be recognized as valid warrants off the reservation

New Section 1 would create a uniform process for the state to return individuals who violate tribal law and seek to avoid tribal justice systems by leaving tribal jurisdiction. It also intends to set procedures by which peace officers and correctional staff of the state must recognize and effectuate tribal arrest warrants. It states the purpose is to expand cross jurisdictional cooperation so that fugitives from tribal courts cannot evade justice by remaining off reservation in Washington's counties and cities, while ensuring that defendants receive the fullest due process protections.

New Section 9 (1) states a peace officer may arrest a person subject to a tribal arrest warrant from a noncertified tribe when the warrant meets the criteria.

New Section 10 (1) states any arrest warrant issued by the court of a certified tribe shall be accorded full faith and credit by the courts of the state of Washington and enforced by the court and peace officers of the state as if it were the arrest warrant of the state.

New Section 11 states the act does not diminish the authority of the state or local jurisdictions to enter into government-to-government agreements with Indian tribes concerning the movement of persons within their jurisdiction. It also does not diminish the validity or enforceability of any such agreements. It does not expand or diminish the authority of the state or local jurisdictions to arrest individuals over whom they have jurisdiction within Indian reservations.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

NONE

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The proposed legislation would require training to be developed and given to our commissioned officers and cadets, as well as policy updates regarding tribal warrants. We estimate that it would take 40 hours to research, develop, and review new training and policies. We also estimate that it would take five academy staff about 22 total hours to deliver the training to all commissioned officers and cadets. Each person receiving the training would need an estimated 15 minutes to complete it. We also expect it would take 2 hours of administrative time to verify compliance with training requirements and 2 hours of commander time to communicate compliance requirements and provide oversight of completion. We are authorized 1,125 employees who would need the training, bringing the total amount of hours needed to receive the training to about 281 hours. The total estimated cost to research, develop, review, give, and receive the training required from this proposed legislation is $34,883

We base our estimate for agency indirect costs on the approved federal indirect cost rate of 33.41 percent. We apply this indirect cost rate percentage to all categories of expenditure with only two exceptions: capital equipment and expenditures after $25,000 of each projected contract. Indirect costs include, but are not limited to, computer and telecommunications support, payroll processing, vendor payments, general accounting, procurement administration, inventory control, and human resource management.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

There is no fiscal impact to the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS). This bill creates a process for state law enforcement officers and places of detention to deliver fugitives to requesting tribes and creates a process for state law enforcement officers to enforce tribal arrest warrants. DSHS does not have peace officers or arrest capabilities and therefore the provisions of this bill do not apply.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Senate Bill 6146 concerns the authority of Washington’s 29 federally recognized Indian tribes to issue criminal arrest warrants. It sets procedures for both “certified” and “non-certified” tribes and specifies how non-tribal government entities must respond to warrants issued by tribes.

Any fiscal impact to the University of Washington Police Department (UWPD) from SB 6146 are expected to be minimal. UWPD estimates that approximately 10 hours of work time will be needed to make required policy revisions and to train commissioned personnel. These costs can be absorbed using existing resources.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. SB 6146 seeks to expand cross jurisdictional cooperation so fugitives from tribal courts cannot evade justice by remaining off reservation in Washington's counties and cities, while ensuring that defendants receive the fullest due process protections.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SB 6146 seeks to create uniform processes by which the state can reciprocate with American Indian tribes within Washington the return of individuals who violate tribal law and seek to avoid tribal justice systems by leaving tribal jurisdiction. Changes or additions to current process will be minimal, therefore EWU anticipates no fiscal impact as a result of this bill.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

SB 6146 relates to expanding cross jurisdictional cooperation so that fugitives from tribal courts cannot evade justice by remaining off reservation in Washington Cities and Counties.

Section 1 states that the intention of the bill is expand cross-jurisdictional cooperation so that fugitives from tribal courts cannot evade justice by staying off reservation, while ensuring that defendants receive the fullest possible due process protection.

Section 2 defines “noncertified tribe,” certified tribe,” “peace officer,” “place of detention,” “tribal court judge,” tribal fugitive,” and “tribal police officer.”

Section 9(1) states that a peace officer may arrest a person subject to a tribal arrest warrant. The person must be brought to an appropriate place of detention and then to the nearest available superior court judge without unnecessary delay.

Section 10(1) states that an arrest warrant issued by the court of a certified tribe shall be enforced by the peace officers of the state as if it were the arrest warrant of the state.

This bill creates no new expenses for the Evergreen State College since the procedures to be followed are the same as that for other individuals with arrest warrants.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Western Washington University does not foresee a significant fiscal impact for this bill. The university acknowledges that the proposed legislation primarily aligns with existing procedures followed by law enforcement agencies for warrants from other jurisdictions. The bill extends the authority to arrest individuals based on Tribal Warrants, which were previously under federal jurisdiction. The process for executing arrests on Tribal Warrants is expected to be similar to that for other warrants, involving transporting individuals to the nearest detention center for processing.

While the bill introduces additional reasons for arrest, the university anticipates that these instances will likely be infrequent for the Western Washington University Police Department (WWUPD). The conclusion is based on the understanding that the bill aligns with established law enforcement practices and expands arrest authority without significantly altering the operational processes already in place.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1 creates a uniform process by which the state may consistently reciprocate with tribes the return of those individuals who violate tribal law and seek to avoid tribal justice systems by leaving tribal jurisdiction.

Section 9 allows an officer to arrest and detain a person subject to tribal warrants.

WDFW Enforcement Officers will need to be briefed on the general procedures for effecting an arrest of a subject based on a tribal arrest warrant in an off-reservation situation along with processes for transferring the individual in custody to the appropriate detention facility. Updating this procedure will not have a fiscal impact.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 1 describes the purpose of the bill to expand cross jurisdictional cooperation so that fugitives from tribal courts cannot evade justice by remaining off reservation in Washington's counties and cities, while ensuring that defendants protections receive the fullest due process protections. Sections 6 through 10 describe the procedures for non-certified and certified tribes.

This bill, if passed, clarifies rules by which tribal warrants are processed as they apply to both non-certified and certified tribes in the state. It also clarifies procedures for the processing of tribal warrants to include with the courts and jails where the warrants are held. This does not impact the normal operations of the Department of Natural Resources' (DNR) law enforcement officers and does not have any fiscal impact.
