Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

Section 2(1) A statement made by a person during a custodial interrogation conducted by a law enforcement officer is presumed to be inadmissible if the court determines that the officer intentionally engaged in deception in obtaining the statement and the statement was made in relation to an investigation of a misdemeanor or a felony, or, in the case of a juvenile, an allegation that the person being interrogated committed an act that would constitute a misdemeanor or a felony if committed by an adult.

Section 2(2) The prosecution may overcome the presumption of inadmissibility if it proves by clear and convincing evidence that the person's statement was voluntary and not made in response to the officer's use of deception.

CHANGES MADE BY THE SUBSTITUTE:

- Exempts from the definition of "custodial interrogation" any circumstances where the court finds that an officer was not required to give the subject of an interrogation a warning and advise the subject of his or her rights before eliciting a response.
- Exempts from the definition of "deception" any circumstances where an officer has a reasonable belief that using otherwise deceptive tactics is necessary to: protect the integrity of a previous or ongoing undercover law enforcement operation, or an ongoing criminal investigation; protect the identity or ensure the safety of an officer, confidential informant, witness, victim, or other individual; or confirm the existence, identity, or whereabouts of a suspected victim or victims that the officer reasonably believes the subject of the interrogation is attempting to conceal information about.
- Requires the Criminal Justice Training Commission to contract with an expert or organization with certain expertise to develop, administer, and periodically revise a training in evidence-based, noncoercive interrogation techniques for law enforcement personnel, and to begin offering the training by July 1, 2025, at no cost to law enforcement personnel or agencies.
- Provides an effective date of December 1, 2025, for the provisions establishing the presumption of inadmissibility for applicable statements made during a custodial interrogation.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

*Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. ## Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

1062 SHB is the proposed substitute for 1062 HB. 1062 SHB expands the definition of “custodial interrogation” and provides officers exceptions to “deception” tactics. 1062 SHB adds a new section to chapter 43.101 RCW: Dependent upon appropriated amounts the commission will develop, administer, and periodically revise a training in evidence-based, noncoercive interrogation techniques for law enforcement personnel. Also, adds an effective date for the proposed bill of December 1, 2025.

CWU does not estimate any fiscal impact based on the language of this bill.

Please see original summary of 1062 HB below:

Section 1: New: Definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise. (1) Defines “custodial interrogation” (2) Defines “deception” (3) Defines "law enforcement officer" (4) Defines “person” (5) Defines “statement”.

Section 2: New: (1) A statement made by a person during a custodial interrogation conducted by a law enforcement officer is presumed to be inadmissible if the court determines that the officer intentionally engaged in deception in obtaining the statement and the statement was made in relation to an investigation of a misdemeanor or a felony, or, in the case of a juvenile, an allegation that the person being interrogated committed an act that would constitute a misdemeanor or a felony if committed by an adult (2) Prosecution may overcome the presumption of inadmissibility if it proves by clear and convincing evidence that the person’s statement was voluntary.

Section 3: New: Sections 1 and 2 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

S HB 1062 relates to the use of deception by law enforcement officers during custodial interrogations.

New section 3 adds a requirement for the Criminal Justice Training Commission.

The revised bill creates no additional requirements for the college so the assessment of no fiscal impact is not changed.

*****

HB 1062 relates to the use of deception by law enforcement officers during custodial interrogations.

Section 1 defines “custodial interrogation,” “deception,” “law enforcement officer,” “person” and “statement.”

Section 2 states that a statement made by a person which has been obtained via deception during a custodial interrogation is presumed to be inadmissible. The prosecution may overcome the presumption if it proves that the statement was made voluntarily and not as a result of deception.

If this bill becomes law, the college’s police officers will be trained to the new standard using existing resources. There is no fiscal impact on the college.
