Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

There is no fiscal impact to the Washington State Patrol (WSP) from this legislation. This does not change with the substitute bill.

This bill expands the definition of "uniformed personnel" to include "public safety telecommunicators, as defined in RCW 38.60.020, employed by a public employer." This definition of "uniformed personnel" is used in RCW chapter 41.56 pertaining to public employee collective bargaining. This would disallow public safety telecommunicators to strike as a means of settling their labor disputes. Instead they would fall under the provisions already established to cover labor disputes with other "uniformed personnel", including the appointment of a mediator.

The substitute bill removes public safety telecommunicators employed by the WSP and any other state agency from its provisions.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

There are no provisions for cash receipts from this legislation.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

Employees of the WSP are no longer part of this bill in the substitute version.
