Part II: Narrative Explanation

II. A - Brief Description Of What The Measure Does That Has Fiscal Impact

Significant provisions of the bill and any related workload or policy assumptions that have revenue or expenditure impact on the responding agency by section number.

The Second Substitute HB 2000 bill reinstates the last paragraph of Sec. 2 that was stricken from the original bill. This language identifies the purpose of the chapter to bring its function under the International Relations and Protocol office that is located within the Governor's Office. Reinstating this stricken language has no fiscal impact to the Agency.

Sec. 4 (1) of the bill includes consultation with Commerce, Department of Agriculture, and other state agencies in regard to the development of international trade relations. This consultation encompasses our current scope of work for the Office of Economic Development and Competitiveness Division (OEDC). The substitute bill adds the Legislative Committee on Economic Development and International Relations to the consultation list. Therefore, there remains no fiscal impact to OEDC.

The Second Substitute HB 2000 modifies Section 3 (2) to include coordination between the Office of International Relations and Protocol and the Legislative Committee on Economic Development when designating foreign jurisdictions of strategic importance to Washington State. This coordination does not affect the Department and maintains no fiscal impact to OEDC.

II. B - Cash receipts Impact

Cash receipts impact of the legislation on the responding agency with the cash receipts provisions identified by section number and when appropriate, the detail of the revenue sources. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the cash receipts impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

II. C - Expenditures

Agency expenditures necessary to implement this legislation (or savings resulting from this legislation), with the provisions of the legislation that result in the expenditures (or savings) identified by section number. Description of the factual basis of the assumptions and the method by which the expenditure impact is derived. Explanation of how workload assumptions translate into cost estimates. Distinguished between one time and ongoing functions.

The Second Substitute HB 2000 modifies Section 3 (2) to include coordination between the Office of International Relations and Protocol and the Legislative Committee on Economic Development when designating foreign jurisdictions of strategic importance to Washington State. This coordination does not affect the Department and maintains no fiscal impact to OEDC.
