Part IV: Analysis

A. SUMMARY OF BILL

Description of the bill with an emphasis on how it impacts local government.

CHANGES BETWEEN THIS VERSION AND PRIOR VERSION OF THE BILL:

The second substitute requires the Criminal Justice Training Commission to contract with an expert or organization with expertise in interrogation tactics to develop, administer, and periodically revise a training in evidence-based, noncoercive interrogation techniques for law enforcement personnel. It omits the provisions in the previous version that made statements inadmissible as evidence if an officer intentionally engaged in deception. These changes remove the fiscal impact for local governments.

SUMMARY OF BILL:

Sec. 1 adds a new section to RCW 43.101. Subject to the availability of amounts appropriated, the Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC) shall contract with an expert or organization with expertise in interrogation tactics to develop, administer, and periodically revise a training in evidence-based, noncoercive interrogation techniques for law enforcement personnel. After development of the training is completed, the CJTC shall make the training available at no cost to all law enforcement personnel and law enforcement agencies in the state.

The CJTC shall begin offering the training by July 1, 2025. Any law enforcement agency may contract for or otherwise receive training in evidence-based, noncoercive interrogation techniques from entities other than or in addition to the CJTC or the CJTC's contracted expert or organization, provided that any entity that the law enforcement agency contracts with or otherwise receives such training from must be certified in the techniques described under subsection (2) of this section.
